ered on his Foregean travels, the Bishop represents the Bishop's narrow ellocation is likely to do the us, like certain Swiss soldiers, as wishing the Catholic to "drown easy." Now it strikes us, that he has drawn a picture in which these large and respectable bedies, with all evangelical Christians of every Protestant church, are represented not only as drowning with them—but drowning so easy that they were rect.

Thus let us examine these alleged grievances, then the properties of the control o is sevepted and there is no law requiring the Catho-nic child to hear the Bible read. Is this hard and life and of usefulness and be or to their or ampeanotable, in schools where nine-tenths or more of the children are the seaf Protestant parents, who consider the Bible indispensable in the education of their own children? The Catholic parent objects to the resume of the Bible for his child. Well, let these we must reserve for another the control of the Bible for his child. im of ject is his right to do so if he pleases; and him objection will be respected. His child will not be required to read or hear the Bible in any achool of the city. But has be any right to infringe the rights of others—any right to degrive Protestant United States Histrict Atterney under Taylor and United States History under Taylor and United States Histrict Atterney under Ta from his education, then I will quit the school, take States Constitution, as it it is down the institution on a cry of persecution? On what mean thath this minority fed that it should so complise and boddly taken. They we substantially the same as the c. ubsequently of cided by Judge Kase in the Passmer William prints? In what school of morals has it learned there mine and for the and instruction of the majorite? In what school of morals has it learned there mine and for the and instruction and resiment.

But if Bishop Spalding a objection, that Catholic children are debarred from the schools by the reading of the Bible, means anything, this is the precise meaning of it, and this the essential principle of it: that they are it present with his own child, but because he is not allowed to do what he pleases with the children of Protestants—fint is, deprive them of the Bible in the school; and because he is not allowed to do this—that 1s, to deprive nine Protestant children of hearing the Bible for the accommodation of his one Catholic child who does not wish to hear and need not hear it—be takes his child beone, double taxes himself for another acbool, raises the cry that parental rights are all infringed, the constitution of his country violated, and, with the aid of Bishop Spalding's reasoning, fancies himself the "victim of a persecution similar to that which drove our fathers to revolution, and caused them to rear the banner of freedom against Great Biritain."

The reading of this Protectant version seems to be a tarrible thing in Bi-hop Spalding's estimation. He says it is a regulation with which Catholics "cannot possibly comply without an acriticing their consistency and giving up their religious principles." They are however only required to let others comply with it who choose to do so. But, for ear part, we should be perfectly willing to compromise the matter. We doubt not the whole Protestant materials, the greatest restriction of cirrums aparents in the consentant was in favor of the reform of our jury system, and any in the protection of cirrums aparents of the code of crums allowed to complete them are the barner of the code of crums allowed to complete the complete the case agreed to allow the jury of the code of complete the case agreed to allow the jury of the code of the prisoner, Mr. Ashmead had bean the came to discuss the large of the prisoner, we should be allowed to consent and waiver of the reform of our jury system, and any other consent and the case agreed to allow t majority would readily agree to modify the regulation, so as to have the Catholic version read alternately with the Protestant, if that will gain the condial cooperation of the Catholics. We will pledge our influence to modify the rule, if the Bishop will bedge his characteristic between the catholics and voted, and as there are only there we have our influence to madify the rule, if the Bishop will pledge his church to join in the arrangement. Will pledge his church to join in the arrangement. Will there be right and reciprocity thee? Or will he will ask of the reading of the Drany ver ion, as he not a minor of Cherch and State in its very worst place, then we candidly acknowledge that we know not what would constitute such a unior?"

But we very much fear that our Roman Catholic friends would be hard to satisfy in this matter, if we may judge from the spirit and arguments of these articles. The plea now is that this Protastant Bible keeps the Catholic children out of the schoola, as by locks and boils. Our impression is that the Roman Catholic version would have precisely the these articles. The plas now is that this possibility to deal in a majority of the legal veters of Battimore allike keeps the Cathelic children out of the school, the flowers Cathelic version south the school of the school, the flowers Cathelic version south to consider the cathelic content of the school of the skin may appear, the amongs there have whip the same effect, although in that car possible version south to other and of the same of the school of the same of th
